Trapping of Animals

In the interest of humane treatment of animals and public safety, it shall be unlawful for any person, anywhere within the City of Waterloo, to set, place or tend any traps for the purpose of trapping, killing, catching, wounding, or molesting any animal without a City trapping permit or in violation of the regulations set forth below:

(1)

Permits.

The Chief of Police shall issue permits to applicants which expire on March 31 of each year. The fee for such permit shall be as set by the Common Council. The applicant must display a valid state permit before a City permit will be issued. Such permit shall describe the property upon which traps will be placed and type of traps being used.

(b)

Holders of valid permits may trap only on property owned by them. A permit may be issued for a person to trap on the property of another only if the property owner signs the application authorizing the trapping.

(2)

Traps.

(a)

Body-gripping traps shall be placed only under water within the bank run of the animal sought to be trapped and shall not exceed the 110 size.

(b)

Foothold or leghold traps shall be prohibited.

(c)

The only other type of trap permitted shall be a live box trap which shall be defined as those traps which capture and hold an animal in an unharmed condition. These types of live traps will not require a permit.

(d)

The Chief of Police may authorize use of traps not approved above for removal of a specific nuisance animal upon complaint, but only after attempting to remove said animal with a live box trap.

(e)

All traps set, placed, or tended shall comply with all applicable Wisconsin Statutes and Administrative Codes as they relate to trapping.

(3)

Exception. This Subsection shall not apply to trapping within the confines of buildings, homes or their respective curtilage for the purpose of vermin eradication. Live box traps which shall be defined as those traps which capture and hold an animal in an unharmed condition. These types of live traps will not require a permit.

(4)

Summary abatement. Any trap set in violation of this Subsection O may be summarily removed if the trap presents a danger to children or domestic animals. Such removal shall not occur before the Chief of Police makes an effort to contact the owner of the trap to request immediate removal by the owner. One phone call shall be sufficient effort before the summary removal.
